Testing The Whiskey Bucky Jones

This book is the story of young, Southern boy, chasing the dream of becoming a successful country music songwriter. It is not the real life of Bucky Jones, but it closely shadows his life, and the lives of many other successful songwriters who grew up in the South. It is about believing in yourself, being willing to do the work necessary to succeed, and, most of all, it is about accepting and nurturing the God-given gifts you are born with, and not turning away from what you know in the deepest recesses of your soul, you were put on this earth to do. Songwriting is not a learned form of art, it is a gift from the greatest artist of all.
