Watching as her two year old sister's hair moves without explanation is just the beginning for seventeen year old Tina Trudent

When she and her family move home, things take a sinister turn and Tina soon realizes that she is the key making the hauntings stop

As Tina struggles to find happiness in her new home, she meets Jack Hudson, her high school sweetheart, who helps her deal with her rationalistic family

Join Tina on her intense journey as she tears down walls to save those she cares for, fights for the love that should never have been lost and unravels the mystery of her recurring nightmares...

From the pen of Canada's newest name in Paranormal Fiction comes a tale, inspired by real events, that will chill the blood of even the most hardened reader.
