A Story of Her Own: The Female Oedipus Complex Reexamined and Renamed Nancy Kulish, Deanna Holtzman

A Story of Her Own is a reformulation of the psychoanalytic concept of the 'female oedipal complex'—a term that encompasses the triangular development phase and the important conflicts and experiences in girls and women. Inspired by the mythic role in human experience and in the unique aspects of femininity, Nancy Kulish and Deanna Holtzman formulate a new name—"The Persephone Complex"—for this concept. They integrate traditional psychoanalytic theory, contemporary theories and data about female development and psychology, and clinical experience with female patients into a comprehensive theory that is not based on male models. With accumulated knowledge from their clinical work, they present new psychoanalytic and therapeutic perspectives on the experience of girls and women attempting to uncover a sense of agency in their lives. They touch upon the unique ways women cope with their sexuality and feelings about their bodies; with feelings of anger, competition, and jealousy; and with their ever-evolving relationships with their mothers, fathers, peers, and lovers.

Philip Mejia:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this A Story of Her Own: The Female Oedipus Complex Reexamined and Renamed can make you really feel more interested to read.
