In a League of Their Own is a look at how many of the world's great players rate their best cricketers of the 20th and 21st centuries. One hundred World XI's have been selected. Players from the days of Jack Hobbs and Donald Bradman right up to Sachin Tendulkar of the present day are all discussed. Find out who Shane Warne and Ian Botham picked for their teams; discover which fast bowlers Sunil Gavaskar chose in his team – as one of the best openers ever there are few better judges. The most popular choices from over a century of Test cricket are discussed by the players themselves, and the statistics are collated to suggest the best team of all-time, as selected by cricket's greats.
