The most authentic stories of Christian hope in the twenty-first century come from the experiences of 'ordinary' people living 'ordinary' lives. In this engaging book compiled by John Sentamu, the Archbishop of York, 20 people with everyday lives, families and jobs share their stories of how they were able to hold onto hope in their darkest moments and go on to experience 'life in all its fullness' through faith in the face of terrible circumstances, including terminal illness, addiction, depression, loss of all kinds and temptation to suicide. Their stories, with accompanying words of wisdom and encouragement from John Sentamu, are truly inspiring, and show how, even through the worst of times, the future with God can be filled with endless possibilities. JOHN SENTAMU is the Archbishop of York, and was previously Bishop for Birmingham and Bishop of Stepney. He is author of the bestselling John Sentamu's Faith Stories.
