The exciting sequel to Hazardous Duty

Now that Savannah has her daughter, Caroline, back after a frightening abduction, life seems calmer. But that serenity comes to an abrupt end when twenty-year-old Rosemary Allen pleads for Savannah's help after running away from her dangerously controlling father. But her father isn't just anyone — he's Mario Ferrante, the criminal mastermind who oversaw Caroline's kidnapping. Rosemary and her husband had planned to escape from Ferrante's house together, but the plan was foiled and Rosemary had to escape alone. Now she is begging Savannah to help keep her safe and rescue her husband.

She knows it's risky, but Savannah can't resist taking on the challenge. And she knows one person who is just crazy enough to take it on with her — Major Christopher Dane. Savannah just hopes he won't be able to see through her feigned indifference to him and discover her desperate desire to be reunited with him, even if it requires both of them to put their lives in danger . . . again. Savannah entreats the help of Dane and his team, and after some convincing, they all agree to take the assignment.

Will the team's undercover plots to beat Ferrante at his own game be enough to win against such a cunning criminal? Will Savannah be able to withstand her resurfacing nightmares when Caroline's safety is in great danger once again? And will she ever have reason to hope that Dane could someday let her into his complicated life?

Best-selling author Betsy Brannon Green again captivates her readers with unpredictable adventure. Above and Beyond will meet your highest expectations for intrigue, romance, and armrest-gripping suspense.
