Every dad wants his son to grow into a hardworking, respectable, successful man. Every dad will meet challenges along the way as he learns to balance work and family, discipline and encouragement, hopes and disappointments, power and grace. But for every dad, raising a son of character is a noble and reachable goal.

With honesty about his own shortcomings as a father, Rick Johnson shows dads the definition of a real man, helps them forgive their own mistakes, and shows them how to guide their sons into healthy, authentic manhood that honors God and respects others.
