Life seemed to settle down to a normal pace for detective Tammy Williams after her return from holidays. However, she is unhappy that none of the suspects in the “buried remains” case were convicted for the murder of many persons. The families of the victims are unhappy too knowing that Tammy was not able to resolve the case and bring the serial killers who murdered their loved ones to justice.

Unexpectedly caught in a bar with families of the victims and fellow off-duty police officers, Tammy ends up being thrust into a situation she never saw coming.

In a surprising turn of events Tammy has to rely on the help of an old friend to figure out the case that might change the direction of her life.
