Los dioses guardianes (Spanish Edition) Barbara Wood

Una novela de acción y de amor que se desenvuelve en el mundo, apasionante y misterioso, de las excavaciones arqueológicas.

Hace treinta y tres siglos reinaba en Egipto el faraón Ajenatón que, entre otras medidas revolucionarias, había sustituido la vieja religión por una monoteísta, lo que había perjudicado a los sacerdotes, y trasladado la capital de Tebas a Tell el-Amarna. A su muerte, toda su obra desapareció. Incluso sus restos fueron enterrados por los sacerdotes de la antigua religión, de nuevo en el poder, en un lugar desconocido.

En la California actual, el egiptólogo Mark Davison lee el diario de una expedición a la zona de Amarna que acabó de forma desastrosa al morir todos sus componentes. Una muerte que, de un modo u otro, parece relacionada con una maldición que pesa sobre quienes violen determinada tumba, la tumba de alguien sin nombre...

Una obra tan imaginativa, dinámica y rigurosa como se debe esperar del extraordinario talento de Barbara Wood.
