Los nuestros (Spanish Edition) Luis Harss

El minuto uno del Boom.

La foto fija que anticipó un fenómeno literario sin precedentes en nuestra lengua.

En el año 1964, Luis Harss emprendió un viaje por Francia, Italia, México y por todo el continente americano con el fin de trazar el retrato literario y psicológico de quienes consideraba los diez autores latinoamericanos más representativos del momento. Borges, Asturias, Guimarães Rosa, Onetti, Cortázar, Rulfo, Fuentes, García Márquez y Vargas Llosa «posaron de buena gana». El resultado de esta aventura honesta y desinteresada fue que, sin proponérselo ni adivinar lo atinado de su predicción, Harss creó el canon y la carta de navegación de un fenómeno aún incipiente que más tarde se llamaría Boom.

«La década del sesenta puede muy bien ser un momento decisivo. Nuestra novela está todavía a prueba. Es demasiado pronto para saber si las pocas figuras realmente notables que asoman en las penumbras son una casualidad o una promesa. Pero si la diferencia entre un accidente y una tradición está en el encadenamiento del esfuerzo común, el futuro se ve propicio. Hoy por primera vez nuestros novelistas pueden aprender los unos de los otros. Cada cual hace su camino propio, pero forma parte de un mismo universo de la imaginación. Hay acumulación y el comienzo de una continuidad. En este sentido podemos hablar del verdadero nacimiento de una novela latinoamericana.»

Luis Harss, 1966
