A FROZEN LAND

Joe May, an overgrown youth with a skinny neck and a large Adam's apple, had eaten only once in the last thirty-six hours and was feeling desperate. When he provided a small service for Hugh Massey, owner of the most famous husky in Alaska, all Joe had in mind was a possible reward. He'd heard that Massey's life revolved around that dog...and a chance to murder the man he hated with rage. But he never thought he would become the bait Massey needed to lure his enemy into a deadly trap—a trap that would set off an epic trek across hundreds of miles of frozen country, to a river of ice known as the Yukon.
