Who says a wolf can't make a pussycat purr?

Perfect timing has never been Lilly Prescott's long suit. Seconds before a showdown with werewolf Dante Morgan, who owns a property that by rights should belong to her, she goes into heat. Not a simple event for a lynx shifter. No, she's doomed to weeks of frustration that can only be soothed by frequent rolls in the hay—or her hand. Unfortunately, Dante accidentally witnesses the latter.

Left shaken and highly aroused in the snow, Dante can't believe he's attracted to the woman who drives him crazy, and not in a good way. Worse, his father has issued an ultimatum. Marry, or abdicate his place as pack leader. On the other hand, it's the perfect leverage. Lilly will get her land...in exchange for a wedding ring and all the sexual satisfaction she can handle.

Marry Dante? No doubt he's a poster boy for Hunks 'R' Us, but he's rude, arrogant and Lilly's sworn enemy. Not to mention the thought of losing her independence is frightening as hell.

When they find themselves falling victim to their own charade, though, it's anything but hell. It's heaven, and the last thing either of them wants. The real thing.

Warning: This book contains redneck werewolves, inconvenient hormones, and a whole new use for cat toys. Uncontrollable meowing may occur.
