Los traficantes de palabras (Spanish Edition) Pedro Ugarte

Los traficantes de palabras: A medio camino entre el humor y la melancolía, Los traficantes de palabras reúne quince relatos en los que el ser humano transita a destiempo, desorientado, confundido, sintiendo la sociedad moderna como una sombría amenaza o como una inesperada oportunidad. Pedro Ugarte construye una colección divertida de historias que a veces desembocan en el humor más ruidoso y otras veces se desvían hacia un desenlace irónico o piadoso, unas historias en cuyos pliegues el lector muy probablemente podrá encontrar matices de su propia vida...

Sobre el autor. Pedro Ugarte (Bilbao, 1963) es autor de una amplia obra narrativa, en la que se alternan novelas y libros de cuentos como Manual para extranjeros, La isla de Komodo, Los cuerpos de las nadadoras (Premio Euskadi de Literatura, Premio Papeles de Zabalandia y Finalista del Premio Herralde), Una ciudad del norte, Pactos secretos, Guerras privadas (Premio NH de Libros de Relatos), Casi inocentes (Premio Lengua de Trapo), Mañana será otro día, El mundo de los Cabezas Vacías y El país del dinero (Premio Logroño de Novela). También ha obtenido el Premio Julio Camba de Periodismo. Los traficantes de palabras, que ahora recupera Leer-E, fue su primer libro de narrativa publicado.
