Por una renta básica universal (Pensamiento político) (Spanish Edition) Ramón Luis Soriano

La renta básica ha concitado la atención de expertos de numerosos campos del conocimiento —economistas, juristas, psicólogos, filósofos, antropólogos, etc.,— cuyas opiniones se recogen en las páginas de este libro. En él puede encontrar el lector argumentos a favor y en contra. Sin embargo, hay una perspectiva de la fundamentación de la renta básica universal descuidada por los estudiosos, y a la que da cumplida respuesta el autor de la presente obra: la de las vías del reconocimiento y justificación jurídica de esta renta como derecho de los ciudadanos desde el mismo nacimiento. ¿Por qué los ciudadanos son titulares de las libertades formales —de pensamiento, religiosa, de expresión, política, de reunión, de petición, de sindicación...— desde su nacimiento, y no lo son de la libertad real o material que atienda a sus necesidades básicas y les permita el ejercicio de esas libertades formales? Esta es la gran cuestión que se aborda aquí, adentrándose con rigor en las posibles fórmulas para el reconocimiento de la renta básica universal como ejercicio de una libertad real y como derecho expreso a la subsistencia.
