The Many Faces of Faith: A Guide to World Religions and Christian Traditions Mr Richard R. Losch

The Many Faces of Faith provides a brief overview of the most important and influential religious traditions of the world, including the many denominational branches of Christianity.

Writing for general readers interested in the diversity of religious faith found around the world, Richard Losch provides short, concise descriptions of the main beliefs and practices of each faith tradition covered. There are discussions of the major world religions as well as of newer faiths and cults. In the second half of the book Losch gives a succinct history of the Christian church and describes the differences between the many independent denominations that exist today.

Whether read for personal edification or in a classroom setting, The Many Faces of Faith provides an ideal starting point for objective inquiry into the richness of modern human spirituality.
