The Legends of Stoke City Tony Matthews

In the history of Stoke City, there's probably never been a better time to celebrate. Not only have the team reached the Premiership for the first time, they also finished second in the Championship. For those who wish to revel in the glory of the club, Tony Matthews has penned a fitting tribute to 100 of Stoke City's most outstanding performers. After great deliberation and consultation with fans of the club, author Tony Matthews has selected 100 players, which include favourites from recent times alongside the stars of a bygone era. Anyone who has read any of the author's previous titles will be familiar with his expert knowledge of West Midlands football, and The Legends of Stoke City is no exception to this impressive back-catalogue. Meticulously researched and illustrated throughout with high- quality photographs, this great new title is essential reading for all true Stoke City fans.
