Zulu (Portuguese Edition) Caryl Férey

Quando criança, Ali Neuman fugiu de sua terra natal para escapar das milícias do Inkatha, em guerra com o partido rival, o Congresso Nacional Africano. Ele e sua mãe foram os únicos membros da família a sobreviver àqueles anos de terror, e Ali carrega traumas, emocionais e físicos, que não compartilha com ninguém.

Hoje chefe da polícia criminal de Cape Town, vitrine da África do Sul, Neuman tem que lidar com dois terríveis flagelos que assolam a primeira democracia da África: a violência e a AIDS. Seu trabalho se complica quando a filha de um ex-campeão mundial de rugby da elite branca é encontrada brutalmente assassinada, com vestígios de uma droga desconhecida no sangue. Ali Neuman, Dan Fletcher - o jovem braço direito do capitão zulu - e o turbulento tenente Brian Epkeen parecem andar em círculos na investigação, seguindo uma pista falsa após a outra, enquanto a carnificina se intensifica. Ainda que o apartheid tenha sido extirpado da cena política, velhos inimigos continuam agindo à sombra da reconciliação nacional.

Carregado de violência e desvelado por um texto primoroso e premiado, Zulu é um raio-x estarrecedor da realidade criminal de uma nação marcada por desigualdades e contradições.
