'Remember, remember that it is upon the rock of our Redeemer, who is Christ, the Son of God, that ye must build your foundation . . . , a foundation whereon if men build they cannot fall' (Helaman 5:12). These timeless words of the ancient prophet Helaman are the focus of addresses given at the 2002 Brigham Young University Women's Conference.

In this volume, conference contributors share testimony, tender scriptures, and poignant personal experiences to teach that these words are just as true today as they were centuries ago. Acknowledging the reality of trials and disappointments in our lives, they testify that the way to stand firm and endure is to build our foundation on the only true Rock, our Savior Jesus Christ.
