Cycling, Wine, and Men: A Midlife Tour de France Nancy Brook

With one bounced check, Nancy Brook's world collapsed around her. She was charged with a felony and thrown in jail even though her husband had pilfered money out of their business account. Eventually, the charges were dismissed, but her marriage and business were over. A decade later at age forty-three, Nancy thrived as a bank vice president and single parent. Still, she couldn't get her dating act together. After seven break-ups in seven years, she knew it was time for a change. The cure for her dating blues? A 700-mile cycling expedition from Bordeaux to the Alps. In France, Nancy wasn't a corporate manager, a mother, or someone's girlfriend. She was reborn into a beautiful new world—without responsibilities or expectations. Cycling, Wine, and Men: A Midlife Tour de France reveals an introspective journey through post-divorce dating, single parenthood, and finding happiness and independence as an unattached woman in her prime. Nancy had thought the perfect guy would make life complete. Instead she learned that pursuing passions and fulfilling lifelong dreams created deeper fulfillment than her latest homme parfait. Experience the ride of a lifetime as Under the Tuscan Sun meets Sex in the City.

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Cycling, Wine, and Men: A Midlife Tour de France can make you truly feel more interested to read.
